

Ambrose Nzeyimana
Political Analyst PanAfricanist and Human Rights Activist
Email: risingcontinent@gmail.com

Profile

Political analyst, pan-Africanist and human rights activist. Has been active advocating for the rule of law and respect of human rights in African countries particularly those from the Great lakes region. Has done public appearances at UK universities and schools. Has as well given interviews to radios and contributed to TV panel discussions on several subjects of critical importance to the African continent including aid, conflicts, and development. Edits a blog: Rising Continent. Is currently writing a book – Play Your Part.

Public contributions

- January 2013 Africa Today
Contribution to a Panel discussion at Press TV on the rebranding of Western aid agencies supporting African development
- July 2012 Kilombo Community Project
Interview by GFM radio on African independence and its meaning after 50 years, with a particular focus on Rwanda, Burundi and Somali
- August 2011 Kilombo Community Project
Interview by GFM radio on African contemporary issues [Ivory Coast, Libya, Africom, dictatorship, democracy, China in Africa, etc]
- July 2011 Pax and Universal Peace Organisation
Contribution to a Panel presentation at the House of Commons in London
“Contribution of Commission for Truth and Reconciliation to sustainable peace: Rwanda in perspective.”
- November 2010 PAX
Contribution to a Panel presentation on the situation in the Great Lakes region, “Illegal exploitation and looting of DRC mineral resources”
- November 2010 African Diaspora Movement
Public speech in London on “Human rights enforcement and improving standards of African lives.”
- April 2010 Iranian Resistance Movement
Public speech held in front of the London based Iranian Embassy on the plight of Iranians living under the Mullahs regime in Teheran

- August 2009 Press TV
Contribution to a panel discussion on atrocities committed in areas under control of Lord Resistance Army, rebel movement against Yoweri Museveni, president of Uganda
- August 2009 Vox Africa
Member of a TV Panel discussion on “peace prospects in the Democratic Republic of Congo further to a visit to the country by US Secretary of State, Hilary Clinton.”
- May 2008 BBC World Service Radio
Interview on issues of “injustices from the Rwandan government against its majority Hutu population,” after imprisonment at Bermash high security prison in London of 4 Hutu members from a UK based Rwandan community. Also interviewed by the same broadcaster in March, June, October 2010, and September 2011 on political and human rights issues in Rwanda.
- April 2008 London School of Economics
Presentation of a paper titled “Geopolitics of the Great Lakes region of Africa – from 1988 to 2007” to the members of ICCSN – International Criminal Court Students Network [London School of Economics].
- February 2008 Cambridge University
Presentation of a paper titled “Geopolitics of the Great Lakes region of Africa – from 1988 to 2007” to members of ICCSN – International Criminal Court Students Network [Cambridge University].
- November 2007 Roedean School – Brighton
Presentation of a paper titled “Geopolitics of the Great Lakes region of Africa – from 1988 to 2007” to the school leavers
- January 2007 Ben TV - London
Member of a TV panel discussion on political and human rights situation in Rwanda